You have been lied to about Kaminari Clara. You have been told that she celebrated the death of Charlie Kirk. I am going to prove to you that Kaminari Clara is innocent of this claim and that this is a deliberate lie by a gangstalking harassment campaign that has been ongoing for nearly a year. The people orchestrating it are not who they claim to be; Proctor is especially not who he claims to be and is a vicious snake who welcomes his subordinates attacking people who he considers cattle, people he considers less than human. He will say it in his own words and I will show you the proof. This is archived on the wayback machine so you can verify all my statements if you wish. I may have missed some pages because this was a large undertaking but I have ensured that the most important information is backed up there. There will be links to that at the end of this. Also you will see the cookie nag vanish when I finally got too annoyed by it and just accepted them. If you are reading this on a phone you need to use the google docs app or the screenshots are unreadable. Everything is easy to read on a desktop pc or the google docs mobile app. And now I will prove that you have been lied to about Kaminari Clara by a deliberate omission of critical evidence for her defense.

Before we begin I request that if anybody accidentally exposes any personal information such as appearance, name, location, or anything that deserves privacy whatsoever on stream that you go back and censor your vod later. Privacy must be respected. Clicking virtually any of the archive links will result in that. I am aware that by archiving this that will happen but there is no way to provide proof of what I will show you without that. Please respect privacy. If you are reading the posts out loud and something is censored in a sentence you can typically replace that with she or her. I redacted every instance of a real name.

Couldn't have happened to a more deserving person tbh, but this level of political violence feels so dangerous.

Yeah, I hate that it has to come to violence like this. I wish we could all recognize each other's humanity and live peacefully, but I've seen very few on the Right willing to accept people who are different.
I agree and I always say it but to be clear every day people are not the ones to be angry at. The people who are creating chaos and causing suffering are the problem. Not the people with no power who are just repeating it. People are brainwashed but that doesn't mean they're completely horrible people. They genuinely believe what they're being told. The people in power don't believe what they're saying though. They know they're hurting people, even their supporters, and they enjoy it because it lines their pockets. They know they're actively trying to take away people's rights.

This is what has been withheld from you. Read it carefully, again. Remember what they told you for 5 months, and look now at what has been deliberately withheld from you. There was a maximum 8 hour and 20 minute time delta between these 2 posts as I will show later, and it was likely much shorter than that. These 2 posts happened the same day for the poster.

I will place the archive proof that this is unedited and does exist now after every image. This one is post #5,187. You may need to wait a minute or two for the page to fully load because archive.org loads images very slowly.

Post #5,187

The woman running the instagram account said this in response to somebody saying they hated the violence and wished we could live in peace. Did she wish death upon anybody? Did that woman celebrate Charlie's death? Did she not explicitly say she did not, DID NOT want anybody to die even if what they are saying is incredibly dumb? Doesn't nearly every one of you also share that exact sentiment, even if you don't necessarily agree with the politics on display as a whole? Even if you take offense to some parts of this she explicitly said precisely the opposite of what you have been led to believe. How can this be?

On thevirtualasylum they disregarded this post as insincere, saying that she was just trying to put out the fire. Would somebody trying to appease an angry mob put an asterisk in Charlie's name? Don't be a fucking idiot. This was meant to be a conversation between friends, and she was being sincere with her thoughts. None of this was ever meant to be public.

Why did it take 5 months and Kaminari Clara having an impending graduation for this to surface? If thevirtualasylum had this critical information the entire time why did those on thevirtualasylum allow Kaminari Clara to be harassed every single time she tried to publicly come back? I can show proof that they knew about the harassment and laughed about it. They knew about this information and are complicit with the harassment by withholding the evidence. Making this widely known on X would have done much to help prevent the brunt of the anger and prevented most of the harassment Kaminari Clara has faced. Did they just think the woman running the instagram account wasn't being sincere and so didn't feel the need to try to provide this critical evidence? I will show you that it is much more insidious than this, that they are almost certainly running an organized gangstalking and harassment campaign, and they will move on to the next target once they think Kaminari Clara is finished.

The first thing you need to see is Proctor Zakharov, @ProctorZ on X and The Proctor on thevirtualasylum.com. He is the owner of this website and built it from the ground up with a small number of followers into what it is today. It appears to be a place to discuss vtubers without the community restrictions that frown upon the discussions of past lives and roommate accounts. They dig deeper. They find real life photos, names, work histories, family members, anything they can dig up they will archive, and then they will connect them to every other account that person has that they can find. But it is much more than just that, and much more vile and foul than that. Proctor believes that he and his ilk should run you off the internet if you ever get on their bad side. This is why he gathers and archives that information. They will gangstalk and harass you as an organized group until you are so exhausted and scared that you give up your career, forcing you off the internet, and then they will try to find your new accounts if they ever pop up to continue the cycle.

Because the former four did bad things and the latter did a good thing that is objectively morally righteous in the eyes of people like her, which includes a significant portion of Phase's audience and staff.
Phase's 'right wing' audience has always been something the company has begrudgingly tolerated at best and tried to distance itself from at worst. If they could jettison that entire portion of the fanbase without significantly affecting their bottom line, it would be done immediately and with no hesitation. The Overton Window has not yet shifted anywhere near far right enough to make right-of-centre views acceptable in the corporate world.

A large portion of this perception has to do with exactly what we are doing right here and right now. Leftist audiences are sheep, plain and simple. They are cattle who will walk blindly into a slaughterhouse if someone in authority tells them to do so. Only the very fringe footsoldiers have memories longer than goldfish, and their obsession with manufactured reality means they will buy into nonsense like vtuber kayfabe and the separation of identities instinctively. You cannot animate these people to stand up for something if it clashes with one of these manufactured realities. Somebody like MarinaTV is a great example. He gets away with nearly every foul, vile, repugnant act he has ever done simply because the people he did those things to now have new identities, and the average leftist will simply turn their brain off at the 'new identity' part and refuse to connect the dots any further.
We're different. We remember, we archive, we hold people accountable across identities. When right-wing people get angry at someone they methodically track down as much information about them as possible, turn it into a bullet-pointed, evidence-backed list of grievances, and then insistently push said list into whatever conversation they take part in that relates to that person from that point onwards. That is what makes right-wing audiences inherently unwanted in Straight from the horses mouth. This is the owner of the website saying they will gangstalk and harass you into submission. He said they will document everything and shove it into every conversation whenever possible, even going so far as to go across identities. He said specifically “A LARGE PART OF THAT PERCEPTION HAS TO DO WITH WHAT WE ARE DOING RIGHT HERE AND RIGHT NOW.” This needs to be bolded because it needs to stand out. It proves that Proctor knows EXACTLY what they are doing to Kaminari Clara and is culpable for every single thing they do to her. Is gangstalking and harassment not what is happening right now with Kaminari Clara?

There's another key point to keep in mind here. A vitally important one. The woman that owns the instagram account had her instagram set to private during the time Charlie Kirk was assassinated. Only followers could see these stories. There was nothing public facing at all with that instagram account at that time, and so in order for thevirtualasylum to see the stories that have made so many people angry they had moles within her instagram followers screenshotting her stories on an account that was not viewable to the general public. Proctor knows that his followers do this. He knows that they infiltrate private accounts and screenshot everything they can. He has condoned it directly. Look.

In other words Proctor and his minions will stalk and harass their target to the ends of the internet using private, leaked information that they found through spies and moles and digging. They will make a bullet-pointed, evidence-backed list, and inject it into EVERY conversation that involves their target. That's what Proctor wants. He wants a harassment campaign that turns over every stone in their targets life to find anything they can attack them with and he says it explicitly. Proctor also believes you are cattle, less than human, if you don't agree with his extreme views of perpetual vengeance and retaliation.

That world already exists and is the status quo, you retarded Evanitocattle. It has been for years. People HAVE been fired for that exact kind of shit, publicly and privately. People have lost sponsors, had hit-piece articles written about them by massive mainstream media entities, been bullied by their coworkers and threatened by their corporate overlords for insufficiently fellating tranny cock. Vtubers have been doxed for saying something as minor as 'I believe men's mental health matters'. This entire paragraph describes the world we already live in and experience daily. Only complete, willful and purposeful ignorance from cattle like you allows it to be perpetuated.

As for the gangstalking? In short order I will show that his second in command Hff201 is in charge of administering the thread concerning Clara's gangstalking, coordinating exactly that. First, however, there is some key information showing how they will never stop unless they are brought to justice.

For a short time the woman running the instagram account appeared to delete that instagram account. This was recently. It occurred on January 28, 2026. That was nearly 5 months after the Charlie Kirk assassination, and nearly 5 months they had been withholding the information that the woman running the instagram account did not want anybody to die. It now has been 5 months and you are only seeing it for the first time here if you do not go to that forum.

What did Hff201 do? Did he say “it's time to let Clara go, we have harassed her enough.” No. Like a true bully he did the opposite. He directed them to archive everything they could if they found another account to make sure they had everything they could get from the account before their target could take any action against them.

Do you remember when Proctor said that if you make right wing people mad they document everything and put it in an evidence-backed list and inject it into everything forever, even across identities? Do you see this means future identities too? Is it starting to sink in that these people have been deliberately trying to destroy Kaminari Clara because they hate her yet?

I will show this again. Read it once more if you wish. Why did they have it for 5 months and you are only seeing it now? They have shown themselves to be organized and dedicated. They have made over 8,500 posts in less than a year. Surely if they cared about the truth they could have gained traction in the social media spheres. They had 5 months to spread this information and they did not do so. They wanted everything that occurred to Kaminari Clara over the past 5 months to happen. They want her forced off the internet forever, from every account she ever makes public (or private if they can find it). Look once more at what they withheld from you.

You have seen in Proctor's own words what he thinks his website should do. If you ever cross him they will gangstalk you and harass you until you are forced off the internet. They do not care about the truth. They will lie and withhold information critical to their targets defense during their attacks because the truth is not their goal. Their goal is the destruction of their targets life. I showed you the proof above that they have been withholding evidence critical to the defense of Kaminari Clara already. Even if you don't agree that the woman running the instagram account was being sincere why did you only see it now? Why did it take this long for it to surface? I will now show you who these people are. These are evil people.

The first person of interest is Italian Raccoon. He is their main mole that leaks information within the instagram account but he is not the only mole. I will show just one time he leaked and move on, and at the end of this I will give a snippet of the many times he has leaked and leaked and leaked. It will not be a full account, only a small fraction of them. There are over 8,500 posts dedicated to destroying and mocking Kaminari Clara. If I had continued archiving I would have been documenting this for weeks and weeks. Other people can document if they wish after they read this.

Italian Raccoon gets his kicks by taking things extremely out of context so he can mock somebody he views as lesser than him. They are the most uncharitable takes you could ever imagine, even to the point of complete delusion at times. He is a pathetic human being, truly one of the bottom feeders of the internet. You will almost never see a more miserable human being than him because if you notice he never has a single good thing to say. It is only mockery and contempt that comes out of him. You will only see a little bit of the leaked post at the bottom of this image because I deliberately obscured what he leaked. I will request that if you open the archive link you do not play the video out of respect for the woman's privacy. Simply verify that the post exists as I presented it.

Hff201 has also directed the hate toward Clara explicitly. He is in a position of authority. Those on the board listen to him because he answers directly to Proctor. If any on the board were responsible for attacking Kaminari Clara on X with the leaked images he might have directly contributed to that occurring by pushing for those actions.

Good. Stir up shit. Clara is a vile human being and she only gets away with it because most people don't bother looking too far into roommate accounts beyond just being curious what the vtuber looks like irl, and the ones who do know what she's up to either don't want to get involved, or are hesitant to cowtip due to the known precedents of that not ending well for most people who do it.
I've defended Clara's right to be a fucking retard in the past because I believe in the right to free speech even if the speech is repulsive, and on principle I do not believe people should be deplatformed or be fired over political opinions. However, this has escalated from an opposing political opinion into a call to action. Kaminari Clara of Phase Connect is encouraging her Instagram followers to commit murder.

I just want to add that this is news that is undoubtedly in the public interest, and therefore it should be reported on. Whether it's upsetting or inconvenient for other people is irrelevant since the general public's right to know about matters in the public interest should trump any other considerations, and if you try to suppress a news story for this reason you are as corrupt as the worst journalists.

And Hff201, if you think nothing has been said that you care about yet what about showing Pippa what you think of your oshi? Pippa, if you read this, what do you think of how Hff201 treats your friend and what he thinks of you? If you want to say it let everybody know. That way we can laugh at HIM now as he has done to others.

I think the the way in which people are talking about the Pippa thing is a good distinction on who's actually a fan who's disappointed in her, and who's a drama tourist shitting things up.

Pippa is my oshi and I say this with all the affection in my heart: she is a fucking retard. She has no inner monologue, by her own admission. She gave Camelot the soft touch even after he tried riling up her fanbase against her. She cowtipped Henri long after he proved himself a liability. She nearly got catfished by a Chinese Internet cult. She pisses away all her earnings on shit she doesn't need. She's currently in the process of giving herself an alcohol dependency.

Pippa has no understanding of cause and effect, and you can see this regularly in her streams when she'll pull up police bodycam footage then get taken aback when people in chat start noticing patterns in the criminals' skin colour, because she's successfully gaslit herself into believing she can keep her distance from political discussion just by not taking a stance herself. That's what's happening here; her line of thought has only got as far as "Clara is my friend so I am happy to see her". The extra layers like "Clara openly hates conservatives", "a lot of my fans are conservatives", and "my fans will be disappointed in me supporting Clara because she openly hates them" are a bit above her tiny woman-brain's paygrade.
I'm not happy about her throwing money at Clara because it's just another example of her not thinking things through properly - it's a character flaw she needs to be better about. But then I go on X/4chan etc. and see posts about it being some kind of conscious backstab and it makes it obvious they know nothing about her - she has never claimed to be a conservative in the past, and she is not taking a liberal stance now.

Let's bring it back to Proctor for a second since we see his second in command is clearly OK with this damaging Kaminari Clara. What does Proctor think about Phase Connect as a whole being damaged so he can achieve his goal of destroying Clara?

That's rich coming from him, king shit devious snake calling somebody else a serpent! He would take the whole company down just to get rid of Clara. He is an extremist that wants to destroy that which he hates, and nothing will prevent him from trying to do it. Remember, he withheld critical information from all of you for 5 months. I will show it again. He knew about it this entire time!

Yeah, I hate that it has to come to violence like this. I wish we could all recognize each other's humanity and live peacefully, but I've seen very few on the Right willing to accept people who are different.
I agree and I always say it but to be clear every day people are not the ones to be angry at. The people who are creating chaos and causing suffering are the problem. Not the people with no power who are just repeating it. People are brainwashed but that doesn't mean they're completely horrible people. They genuinely believe what they're being told. The people in power don't believe what they're saying though. They know they're hurting people, even their supporters, and they enjoy it because it lines their pockets. They know they're actively trying to take away people's rights.

I am going to bring back these 2 screenshots for the timestamps to further cement that the woman running the instagram account was almost certainly speaking sincerely with a friend and not appeasing the mob. Look at the time on the one that has made so many people angry and the one that was deliberately withheld from you.

At 7:43 pm on September 10 Italian Raccoon posted the first leak, and the second leak he posted at 4:03 am on September 11. That's an 8 hour and 20 minute time delta, and I added the third image so you can see Italian Raccoon said he slept a long time before catching the second post. It could have been minutes after the first post that the second post landed, or it could have hours after. We will never know. But why is this important? For the woman running that instagram account it was almost certainly the same day, and given that it took an entire day or so for the hate mob to really go nuts after the first post leaked it's far more likely this was a conversation between friends. The hate mob did not begin the minute Italian Raccoon made the first leak. That took time to build and spread, and that time ate into the maximum 8 hour and 20 minute window between the two posts. Also, if the woman running the instagram account was being insincere with the second post why is the response completely within context to what was sent? A panic explanation would not match a post that was being responded to. It would be sent in a panic, with nothing to respond to at all, just a random story with nobody that she was talking to. It also wouldn't have the asterisk on Charlie because that could potentially make things worse. This is the poster being sincere about not wanting people to die. They told you Clara celebrated Charlie's death. They lied to you by omission.

But again, Proctor doesn't care about the truth. Proctor just wants to crush his enemies, forever, across every internet persona they will ever show up on. And he doesn't care who he destroys to do it. This man is a blight upon the internet.

Again, I reiterate, why did it take 5 months and an impending graduation for this to come to light??? Why was this withheld from you???? Why is the internet burning Kaminari Clara at the stake for a lie? You know why. Because Proctor and his goons made sure events happened in a way that you would do it. They are venomous snakes, the entire lot of them. They do not care about the truth. They only care that they destroy their targets.

I keep repeating some things over and over and I apologize for that but it's deliberate. Some people listening might be only halfway tuned in and need to hear it over and over to understand. This is just the nature of the way the social media news cycle works.

Let's move on to a few of the people who tried to destroy Clara on X. We will not cover them all because that would be exhaustive. Just a few will be enough, and you only need a few to keep a perpetual harassment campaign going when X is refusing to take action anyway. Take note that if you were to look into Kaminari Clara's posts on X the attacks are legion, but the ones posting pictures of the woman from that instagram account are the most damaging.

First we have @RShinomiyaVal, the one who takes credit for breaking containment first. He also celebrates what he did and wishes to do it to more people. He has continued to attack Clara off and on even up to the graduation announcement and has kept up a persistent harassment campaign against her. I cannot easily archive his posts because the wayback machine does not accept posts from X so you will just have to accept these pictures are not doctored beyond the censoring I will do if he deletes his posts. I will not be including links to the posts that expose real life photos of the woman that owns that instagram account. You will simply have to believe me that those posts exist. I have shown you how all this is a deliberate lie and a campaign to ruin her life. Let Kaminari Clara be at peace. I once more request that you censor your vod if necessary if you accidentally leak any private information. I would make an additional request that the top voted comments point out where censoring is needed so that it can be censored quickly.

@RShinomiyaVal makes it a point to say the cruelest things he can in his posts, and he doesn't care about the truth. Later on you will see him attack Italian Raccoon, the main leaker who obviously knows more than him, and @RShinomiyaVal calls Italian Raccoon an idiot because he didn't accept the swinger party narrative. @RShinomiyaVal is absolute filth who even fights with his fellows in arms. He lives and breathes conflict. Go check the media section of his X and scroll back. He has a long history of fighting. That is not a picture of the woman in question by the way. He simply photoshopped Clara's head on a stock porn image from somewhere. Don't get any weird ideas!

He also claims to have been the first one to spread the leaked images on X and has directly threatened both Amanogawa Shiina and Himemiya Rie. Please do not scroll around on these X posts I link to the other posts if you open them because it leads directly to images of the women that owns that instagram account. Let her privacy be respected. Let Kaminari Clara be at peace.

I will not be providing links to these 2 because they show the pictures of the woman in question. This is my “trust me bro” moment. I think you'll agree I've earned it.

Did you notice something about that last post? I reported it for doxxing on the first few days of @RShinomiyaVal's hate campaign. Nothing has been done. X allows anybody to harass others with impunity, and if they get a rare action against them it's a slap on the wrist and they go right back to harassing people again.

@RShinomiyaVal desires to do it to more people. Will X do something about him? He will just make another account anyway. When will they protect people like Clara from deliberate campaigns such as this? How will they protect their users from harassers that just make account after account after account and that keep posting the same attacks over and over again? Elon has some difficult problems to solve but they must be solved because this problem will only magnify if things stay as they are.

Next we have @Diddly_Doodler, one of the other first people to attack. While he doesn't show real life photos or a name he tries to get the social media news accounts to report upon this. This didn't really work in September but he didn't give up trying to end Kaminari Clara. Remember, this is a perpetual harassment campaign intended to drive Kaminari Clara from the internet and it has been achieved by deliberately withholding critical information. Notice how @Diddly_Doodler explicitly reveals that it is a harassment campaign in the second image by saying Clara should not be allowed in polite society. Proctor deserves everything he receives if this goes viral. Dragging him on X worse than Clara has been drug is too good for him. His website needs to be shut down.

We are going to move on to the end of this. This is already very long and just 2 of the people that harassed Kaminari Clara beyond the initial day are enough. It shows a commitment to harassment beyond just a flashpoint of anger. This is organized and dedicated harassment. It is never intended to end. And it was all achieved by Proctor and his disgusting filthy minions making sure YOU didn't have the full truth. Remember, this is all because they said that Clara celebrated Charlie's murder.

Is that a celebration or a direct repudiation of his murder? Proctor has turned black into white and white into black on purpose. He and his ilk will try to muddy the waters and tell you not to believe your own eyes or listen to your own conscience. He will say it wasn't his responsibility to clear up the confusion and that she did it to herself. Will you let him deceive you? Will you allow this to continue knowing that they lied? Even if you think there's a chance the woman running the instagram account did celebrate there is a far greater chance she didn't based on this image. Will you allow this to continue based on a chance? Will you let somebodies life be destroyed by a gangstalking and harassment campaign on a chance that maybe it happened the way Proctor’s group framed it? I showed you who Proctor and his followers are. You have their direct posts. There is no interpreting their character incorrectly. They are evil people.

Asmongold, you are impervious to the attacks of those that hate you, a true tank for the things you champion, but you also speak what you believe to be true no matter who it makes angry. Do you believe Clara was treated fairly in this? Can you keep silent as these people destroy her life over leaked, private instagram posts that were catalogued over months and months and that deliberately withhold critical context for her defense?

What about you Rev? Your wife is Christian. You are too. Doesn't the Lord hate injustice and liars? Was what happened here just? Your wife was the target of a harassment campaign.

Whether you love her or hate her Clara is also a daughter of the Lord. Will you throw the first stone as one without sin? Will you allow them to destroy her as others wished to destroy your wife?

Leaflit, you too are Christian. I do not know if you have covered this but you follow Asmongold closely so I think you probably have. I will say you are my favorite out of everyone that I am speaking directly to and I listen to you often. You always try to be fair and listen to both sides, even if the other side is saying stupid shit. Did anybody listen to the person they say is Kaminari Clara say she didn't want anybody to die? Or did they deliberately make sure you never saw that so they could lie, saying she celebrated the death of Charlie Kirk, using the incredible anger immediately following that horrific moment as a sledgehammer to smash her life to bits? Are you angry that they tried to make you hate her without telling you the whole truth?

Kirsche, you are Pippa's friend, and she befriended you when you were still trying to fight your way to the position you have now. Even though you absolutely hate what the left is doing can you stand by and watch as the friend of your friend is destroyed by deliberate lies and attacks? I know you don't like Clara. That's ok. But does she deserve this? And does Pippa deserve to see it happen to her friend and her entire company? The left has people trying to do this to you too every day. The left hates you just as much as Proctor hates Clara. Will you sit by and let this happen?

For everybody else who covered this topic without the full information, will you let your old vods go unchecked, never reporting on this new information at all? Will you let that old information float around for people to see randomly and keep this campaign rolling? There is a need to set this right among you all.

I will move on to the image reel now. That's how this will end, many screenshots. They won't all be easy to read before I gave in and accepted cookies, but they'll be good enough for people to see what kind of sick awful fucks these people are. They wanted the world to see Clara for something other than who she is. I will let you see them for exactly who they are. When you see Italian Raccoon or another account post an image that is cut off at the bottom I deliberately obscured that image. It is a leak from that instagram account and that woman deserves privacy, but Italian Raccoon and the other leakers deserve to be shown how often they breached her privacy. At the end you can go to the archived links I'll provide to verify if you wish. Notice how they celebrate the destruction of Clara's career. They pinned upon her the celebration of Charlie Kirk's death unjustly, lieing to you to do it, and now they celebrate their lie that led to her destruction with glee, and they plan to continue doing it to her if she ever shows up on another social media account and they want to do that to others as well. These people are demons.

- But before that one more thing.

I have never been rejected when I send cock pics to vtubers. I've even gotten a few very hairy pussy pics in return.

Post #8,121

Proctor says he has sent dick pics to vtubers. He believes everything should be archived, no matter how sensitive or who it hurts. Ladies, return his dick pic to him if you still have it. Make his cock the most famous part of him on his own website, and then archive it on the wayback machine forever. After all, he would do it to you if he could. It is only his just deserts.

I thought we had kinda decided here that got a talking-to by Phase at some point and they told her to lie low or tone her shit down please. You could say maybe Phase did the same with Jerry. The trouble with that, though, is that was in the doghouse for cheering at the "let's talk this out" guy being murdered and Jelly's thing was daring to say "I do not need to see propaganda in kid's games".

Hi Emailingmainlyman, I hope you find this thread very informative. Clara is a Whore, will always be a whore, and an irredeemable one as well. Keep seething on the internet and talking about godly things to a person (Clara), who is probably as atheist as the creator of atheism.

Klara is an easy retarded politic punching bag and most of us come from chuddy backgrounds that are often the complete and utter opposition to her beliefs. I do find it cringey when people salivate about any current event in relation to how much she could seethe about it. She is a dime a dozen leftie, just an incredibly retarded one even for a spergy white women

Yeah just keep telling yourself that retard. Fun fact, the simple act of you having an account on this hateful evil doxxing site means she'd more than likely celebrate your death too, but if you wanna keep blindly defending someone who'd watch you bleed out and 🤷‍♀️, be my guest. I will however gladly call you a retard for doing it.

Honestly, I don't really care if the thread gets locked or not.
Seems like everyone who had accsess to her Insta account in here seems to have been nuked from [redacted] follower list (correct me if I'm wrong there), so we don't even know if she's posting anything funny at the moment.
I even made an Instagram account that I put a lot of effort into, so it seems like I'm just some random guy who's a massive fan of JP idols, cosplayers, etc., and my request is still pending. I don't think she will accept my request. I also made sure that the account is several months old, so it doesn't come off as suspicious.
Edit: So my theory is that she went completely silent on her main account and made an alt to post her political sperging, or she finally just learned to STFU. But I highly doubt that.

I'm hesitant to lock this in case something happens/someone finds something to actually talk about, but I am going to ask for you all to knock both the empty nothing-posts about her not doing anything and the "I bet this thing that happened in the news would make Clara SO MAD!!!" posts on the head. It's okay for the thread to have low activity sometimes.

Is [redacted] still silent on her Instagram, or has she started posting there again? It doesn't have to be anything problematic or relevant to this thread.
I'm just asking whether she's posted anything at all since she started streaming again.
How many people here still have access to her Insta account anyway after her massive blocking spree?

Whatever you think of the situation, I think Pippa going out of her way to akasupa was a dumb way to show support. Writing something like "I'm glad to have you back" in Clara's chat would have served the same purpose without giving people as much ammunition to use against her.
I think the the way in which people are talking about the Pippa thing is a good distinction on who's actually a fan who's disappointed in her, and who's a drama tourist shitting things up.

Pippa is my oshi and I say this with all the affection in my heart: she is a fucking retard. She has no inner monologue, by her own admission. She gave Camelot the soft touch even after he tried riling up her fanbase against her. She cowtipped Henri long after he proved himself a liability. She nearly got catfished by a Chinese Internet cult. She pisses away all her earnings on shit she doesn't need. She's currently in the process of giving herself an alcohol dependency.
Pippa has no understanding of cause and effect, and you can see this regularly in her streams when she'll pull up police bodycam footage then get taken aback when people in chat start noticing patterns in the criminals' skin colour, because she's successfully gaslit herself into believing she can keep her distance from political discussion just by not taking a stance herself. That's what's happening here; her line of thought has only got as far as "Clara is my friend so I am happy to see her". The extra layers like "Clara openly hates conservatives", "a lot of my fans are conservatives", and "my fans will be disappointed in me supporting Clara because she openly hates them" are a bit above her tiny woman-brain's paygrade.

I'm not happy about her throwing money at Clara because it's just another example of her not thinking things through properly - it's a character flaw she needs to be better about. But then I go on X/4chan etc. and see posts about it being some kind of conscious backstab and it makes it obvious they know nothing about her - she has never claimed to be a conservative in the past, and she is not taking a liberal stance now.

In the grand scheme of grave dancing and outright calling for violence what Clara said was pretty fucking tame and I don't really see the sense of sperging out so hard about it.
Also most of the people shitting their pants demanding fish fire Clara are fucking tourists who have maybe watched a single Phase clip and aren't actually the audience who pays the company money.
I think Clara is dumb but its not like she was saying Kirk's whole family needs to also go like a bunch of deranged weirdos have.
Fish has done what he is going to do with the situation and those assholes should fuck off.

And it worked. Pippa apologized publicly and has toned down her content considerably since then, and openly talks about forcing herself to believe what her managers tell her is true even when she knows it isn't. Phase chose to keep working with Offkai, despite what was done to them. Now Clara has a major part in one of Offkai's events. Just like it paid for Vexpo, which is headed by the same team as Offkai.

Because the former four did bad things and the latter did a good thing that is objectively morally righteous in the eyes of people like her, which includes a significant portion of Phase's audience and staff.

Phase's 'right wing' audience has always been something the company has begrudgingly tolerated at best and tried to distance itself from at worst. If they Phase's 'right wing' audience has always been something the company has begrudgingly tolerated at best and tried to distance itself from at worst. If they could jettison that entire portion of the fanbase without significantly affecting their bottom line, it would be done immediately and with no hesitation. The Overton Window has not yet shifted anywhere near far right enough to make right-of-centre views acceptable in the corporate world.

A large portion of this perception has to do with exactly what we are doing right here and right now. Leftist audiences are sheep, plain and simple. They are cattle who will walk blindly into a slaughterhouse if someone in authority tells them to do so. Only the very fringe footsoldiers have memories longer than goldfish, and their obsession with manufactured reality means they will buy into nonsense like vtuber kayfabe and the separation of identities instinctively. You cannot animate these people to stand up for something if it clashes with one of these manufactured realities. Somebody like MarinaTV is a great example. He gets away with nearly every foul,

The left never, ever follows through unless it's an extreme case. The documents are for the most part purely performative. Even if they get vast amounts of attention, 99.9% of it is forgotten within a week, because they're goldfish. The same people just carry on as normal, doing the same things as before, unimpeded and unchallenged.

Like with Kirsche, a unrelated independent vtuber, there are people accusing her of running defense for Phase because she won't tarnish her reputation and friendships to talk about it. The retards who repeatedly spam the same thing about people like this lick windows and I really don't envy Kirsche's position right now, but I do wish she (and others like her) would name Clara outright rather than dancing around it. This kind of thing is what I meant when I said Clara's being protected by being in Phase; one of the purposes of reporting on current events is to speak truth to power, but you're not doing that if you go easy on certain powers because your friend works for them.
It would also help because Kirsche has a brain in her head and would focus on the actual issue, rather than sperging out about unrelated pet ones.

most powerful tool you can possibly recruit for your cause because they will channel every shred of energy they would normally reserve for caring for their offspring into being a footsoldier and diehard fanatic. Brainwashed libtards like Clara will unironically throw their bodies between you and an axe murderer if you try and defend yourself from him because they believe it's your fault he is a marginalised member of society over something as trivial and forgivable as being an axe murderer. There is absolutely no way in hell she 'just does anything about it other than write tumblr posts'. She is a dedicated evangelist for the cause and will make forcing her politics into anything she does a priority substantially higher than any other aspect of her life. She already did this on her main account, and will do far more the instant she gets the opportunity.

Only an absolute retard doesn't see this as a self-evident truth at this point.

As an aside, people are claiming that Clara's initial privating of her instagram was due to fish telling her to knock it off and hide it - the culling was also because of fish according to them. They also are claiming that she did unprivate her account for an hour or so just to let others see her vitriol.
I think the first part is a very reasonable (if unconfirmed) idea. As for the second part, I have yet to see any evidence that she unprivated her account. That is likely people just getting confused because it was claimed at one point earlier in this thread that the account had been made public again (before being walked back once it became clear there wasn't any evidence of that). This is called "being a fucking retard who can't read," which is unfortunately very common for dramaEvanitos.

I want to address this part specifically because I think you're drastically missing the difference in context on this. The reason the "freedom from consequences" line is memed on is because it is almost always used by bad actors to enact an excessive vigilante punishment toward someone for differences in opinion, like when people disingenuously orchestrate defamation campaigns and abuse media platforms to take their victim down.

It's being used by people here in this context as a literal interpretation of the phrase, which is consistent with the values this forum's userbase have held since day one. Fedposting has never been allowed here; I guarantee you if someone were to make a similar "remember the Second Amendment means you can shoot people like this, you have to be violent sometimes, wink-wink" post about anyone, even a universally detested figure, then several users would report the post and the mods would ban them. We are free to voice opinions, we are not free to incite violent retribution. That's how our forum works, that's how wider society works, and that's how US law works.

Ya just had to do it, ya just haaaad to have the last say. Ya just haaaaaaaaad to "OWN THE CHUDS", the chuds who are now going to use you as their libtard piñata because ya just can't fucking stop posting in your Instagram.
You sowed it and now it's time to reap it. This is too fucking glorious, too bad Phase is going to be GROUND ZERO in a few days if the list goes viral. You can bet every right wing chud and leftist loon will use this as ammo to own the other side. Every bit of dirty laundry Phase has will be unearthed. Sakana and management had a chance to nip this in the bud, it's probably too late now.
Pray that your oshi comes out of this unscathed or this becomes a nothingburger very quickly. Sakana should do something pronto if he wants the girls to not get caught in this shitstorm of doing.

That world already exists and is the status quo, you retarded Evanitocattle. It has been for years. People HAVE been fired for that exact kind of shit, publicly and privately. People have lost sponsors, had hit-piece articles written about them by massive mainstream media entities, been bullied by their coworkers and threatened by their corporate overlords for insufficiently fellating tranny cock. Vtubers have been doxed for saying something as minor as 'I believe men's mental health matters'. This entire paragraph describes the world we already live in and experience daily. Only complete, willful and purposeful ignorance from cattle like you allows it to be perpetuated.

A corpo vtuber openly encouraging literal fucking murder needs to be featured, preferably with both her vtuber name and Phase Connect written out in the announcement to get SEO hits too. People need to know about this.

I just want to add that this is news that is undoubtedly in the public interest, and therefore it should be reported on. Whether it's upsetting or inconvenient for other people is irrelevant since the general public's right to know about matters in the public interest should trump any other considerations, and if you try to suppress a news story for this reason you are as corrupt as the worst journalists.

Only time plastic containers like that are used is for takeout (unless it is one of those hipster places that try and do shit like that to "be unique"). Kind of like this one restaurant in the US (cannot remember where it is) that serves prison food that was made to look pretty.

The fact that DSP knows about this and asked Null to take it down makes it 10x funnier.

Are we sure that she isn't clinically retarded (like confirmed sub-room temp [in celsius] IQ)? Not even my sub 80 IQ younger sister has takes as retarded as this - and she has been infected by the theater kid brain, was convinced of being trans once already (talked her off that cliff) and almost convinced again just this year, and was tricked into a "gay trans" relationship (read lesbian) despite being a straight woman.

A few years later, I met him while I was getting food after graduating high school. We talked for a little while and I asked why he never volunteered to help the high school theatre team out for their performances.
His response boiled down to 'Glee ruined an entire generation of kids' and 'it was just a social club for faggots.'
...Don't really know how to tie this back to [redacted] but I'm pretty sure this guy would have an aneurism if he was exposed to her Instagram for any length of time.

Maybe she realised posting the exact park she's at isn't a particularly smart move. Admittedly nothing she does is a smart move, but still.

It's kind of funny how bad she is at hiding when her streaming breaks are just an excuse to fuck around. It's like when you tell your parents you're deathly sick and can't go to school, then they catch you playing videogames an hour later.

Because the former four did bad things and the latter did a good thing that is objectively morally righteous in the eyes of people like her, which includes a significant portion of Phase's audience and staff.
Phase's 'right wing' audience has always been something the company has begrudgingly tolerated at best and tried to distance itself from at worst. If they could jettison that entire portion of the fanbase without significantly affecting their bottom line, it would be done immediately and with no hesitation. The Overton Window has not yet shifted anywhere near far right enough to make right-of-centre views acceptable in the corporate world.

A large portion of this perception has to do with exactly what we are doing right here and right now. Leftist audiences are sheep, plain and simple. They are cattle who will walk blindly into a slaughterhouse if someone in authority tells them to do so. Only the very fringe footsoldiers have memories longer than goldfish, and their obsession with manufactured reality means they will buy into nonsense like vtuber kayfabe and the separation of identities instinctively. You cannot animate these people to stand up for something if it clashes with one of these manufactured realities. Somebody like MarinaTV is a great example. He gets away with nearly every foul, vile, repugnant act he has ever done simply because the people he did those things to now have new identities, and the average leftist will simply turn their brain off at the 'new identity' part and refuse to connect the dots any further.
We're different. We remember, we archive, we hold people accountable across identities. When right-wing people get angry at someone they methodically track down as much information about them as possible, turn it into a bullet-pointed, evidence-backed list of grievances, and then insistently push said list into whatever conversation they take part in that relates to that person from that point onwards. That is what makes right-wing audiences inherently unwanted in

Ephesians 6:10-20

“10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. 11 Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes. 12 For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. [13] Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. [14] Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, [15] and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. [16] In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. [17] Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

[18] And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people. [19] Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, [20] for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should.”
